KT Healthcare

Assessments & Therapies

James and Emily Kirsop-Taylor founded KT Healthcare after facing challenges with long waiting lists and uncertainties around ADHD and autism diagnoses. Their personal experiences as parents, combined with their professional backgrounds, fuelled their commitment to providing quality, compassionate, and patient-centred care.

The Kirsop-Taylor Family

- Shorter waiting times
- NICE-compliant assessments
- 'Gold standard' diagnostic tools
- Comprehensive post-assessment report
- Multidisciplinary team
- Child-friendly approach
- Clear personalised guidance
- Practical next steps advice
- Fast detailed reports
- Support for home and school
