I once made a little boy cry on Easter. It really wasn't my fault! He was only about 4 years old, and we were pitted against each other in an Easter Egg Tapping competition. The game is called Ostereiertitschen in Germany. To play, each person has a hard-boiled egg and must decorate it for battle, and the decorating is half the fun. Once the eggs are decorated and ready to gloriously represent their human champion, the competition takes place. In one-on-one battles the opponents tap their eggs against each other, gently at first and then with a little more force. The first egg to get a crack loses that round. All the winners then square off against each other, until there is but one egg and victorious human remaining.

In my case on Easter fourteen years ago, the little boy, Philip, and I both made it to the final round when we were matched against each other. I was really trying my best to let him win, but something went wrong and his egg cracked, and he bawled his eyes out and threw himself into his mother's arms.

I am still friends with Philip and his family. Philip is all grown up now and he is thinking of going to seminary. Maybe your family should play a rousing game of Ostereiertitschen this Easter. Make sure you have hard-boiled eggs!

The John Arouni Scholarship deadline has been moved from April 1st to May 1st. There was an error when old information from another scholarship (Northland Catholic Community Foundation scholarship) was posted on the new website with a deadline date of May 1st. To avoid any confusion it was decided to move the deadline. If you would like to apply for the John Arouni Scholarship there are applications available on the rack in All Saints Hall and on the new updated website. Thank you for your understanding in this error.

At the Chrism Mass the Priests renewed their vocational vows. It was beautiful to witness the Priests of the Diocese who were there, say "YES" to their vocation. Let's pray for all our Priests in crisis' or not.

Pope's April prayer intention: 'For priests in crisis'

Pray with the Pope

*Lord Jesus,
Good Shepherd and companion on the journey,
today we place in your hands all priests,
especially those going through moments of crisis,
when loneliness weighs heavily,
when doubt clouds their hearts,
and when exhaustion seems stronger than hope.*

*You who know their struggles and wounds,
renew in them the certainty of your unconditional love.
Let them feel they are not mere functionaries or lonely heroes,
but beloved sons, humble and cherished disciples,
and pastors sustained by the prayer of their people.*

*Good Father,
teach us as a community to care for our priests:
to listen without judging,
to give thanks without demanding perfection,
to share with them the baptismal mission
of proclaiming the Kingdom in word and deed,
and to accompany them with closeness and sincere prayer.*

May we support those who so often support us.

*Holy Spirit,
rekindle in our priests the joy of the Gospel.
Grant them healthy friendships, networks of fraternal support,
a sense of humor when things don't go as expected,
and the grace to always rediscover the beauty of their vocation.*

*May they never lose trust in You,
nor the joy of serving your Church with a humble and generous heart.*

Amen.
