That They May Be One Documentary Coming to Theatres May 19-20

The film uncovers a remarkable story of God’s providence unfolding for more than a century. From the urgent prayers of St. Elena Guerra, which inspired Pope Leo XIII to consecrate the twentieth century to the Holy Spirit, to the dramatic outpouring of the Spirit in Topeka, the historic revival at Azusa Street, and the surprising awakening among Catholics at Duquesne University in 1967, a powerful thread emerges.

Through compelling testimony, historical insight, and dramatic reenactments of Pentecost and Jesus’ prayer in John 17, the film reveals the Holy Spirit’s work across denominational lines, calling the Church to renewal, awakening, and unity.

That They May Be One is more than a documentary, it’s an invitation to rediscover the Spirit who is still moving today.

WITH PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING TO ALMIGHTY GOD

The Roman Catholic Diocese of Crookston joyfully announces the ordination of Howard Fulks, John Hajostek, and Richard Veit, to the Sacred Order of Deacons through the imposition of hands and the invocation of the Holy Spirit by His Excellency, THE MOST REVEREND ANDREW H. COZZENS, Bishop of Crookston. Saturday, the sixth of June, in the two thousand and twenty-sixth year of Lord at ten o'clock in the morning at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Crookston, Minnesota.

All of the faithful are welcome to attend.

"For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be God's will, than for doing evil."
 1 PETER 3:17

The old line says, "if you want to make God laugh, tell him your plans." Many of us are diligent in our planning and making sure things are progressing smoothly. Then disaster strikes, we don't get the result we anticipated or an unforeseen problem arises. Many times, we may respond negatively and ask, "Why me? I did everything right!" Here's the thing - adversity humbles us and reminds us of our dependence on God and not on our own self-reliance. Rest assured, God has a better plan in store for you.
