Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (July 5, 2026)

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

Matthew 11:28-29

Generosity is not a burden, but a liberating experience. It liberates because the generous person is walking in the yoke with Christ sharing gifts and challenges.

“Question of the week

Do I consider myself meek? How can I be less resentful and more peaceful and patient with family, friends, and colleagues?

Liturgy of the Hours: Week II of the Psalter

Reflection of the Gospel

The rest promised by Jesus echoes that bestowed on those who let themselves be yoked to Woman Wisdom’s teaching (Sir 6:28). It also echoes that of the Creator (Gen 2:1-3), who rested in order to delight in the goodness of all that had been made. Women wisdom, also present at creation (Prov 8:23-31), shares in this unbounded joy. When believing communities gather to share Sabbath rest, we celebrate the divine delight in creation (Exod 20:8-11) and our participation in the recreative and liberating work of the Holy One.

Prayer Requests:

The following people or their family has asked us to pray for them:

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy.
