Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (July 12, 2026)

“For as the rain and snow come down from the heaven and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful... so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth. My word shall not return to me empty, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.” Isaiah 55:10-11

Stewardship is what we do with our lives after we say, I believe. The word of God is only fulfilled when we act on it. Does our faith bear fruit in our gifts of time, talent, and treasure?

“Question of the week

What will I do this week to cultivate God’s word? Which passage from scripture have applied to my life recently?

Liturgy of the Hours: Week III of the Psalter

Reflection of the Gospel

Today’s parable undercuts any smugness or complacency in the part of those who received the gift of faith. The gospel invites us to shift our focus from wondering whether the “seed” is effective—it is! — or why the “soil” of other peoples is unreceptive to the question of how those who have received the gift can help prepare receptive soil and to continue the prodigal and indiscriminate work of the Divine Sower, who eagerly shares the mysteries of his word for and wide. -Living Liturgytm, Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 2026

Prayer Requests:

The following people or their family has asked us to pray for them:

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy.
