The New Eve | Lectio: Mary | Episode 1

The Book of Genesis begins with the story of Adam and Eve, whose sin of disobedience breaks their relationship with God. God does not abandon his people, but gradually prepares them for the coming of his Son, Jesus Christ. Jesus, the promised "seed" of Genesis 3:15 is the "New Adam," and his mother, the promised "woman," is the "New Eve."

HELP WANTED!

Can you come and sit with me? I want to hear what is going on in your life. Not just the bad when you need me to listen but also the joys. I know you’re busy but I am NEVER to busy for you! Just carve out one hour every Thursday from 10am to 6pm. If you can’t commit to every Thursday could you be put on a sub-list to be called maybe twice a year to sub for someone? When can you come sit with me? I ‘m not only a good listener, but I would love to talk to you also. Come sit with me in Adoration. It is all I ask.—Jesus

Sign up sheet for Adoration is in All Saints Hall or see Christine in the office.

Chris Peluso will be working on the Liturgical Ministry schedule for September – December. Please contact Chris (218-371-7336) with any dates that you are aware of that you can not serve by August 23rd. We are in need of MORE volunteers to help serve at the Masses in ALL the Liturgical Ministries. PLEASE consider helping. Just picture how Mass would look with out those that are already volunteering? Let Father Hamness, Chris Peluso or the office know that you would like to volunteer.

The diocese has asked us to shift our focus from children’s Religious Education to Faith Formation. In other words, parents need to be involved as the first teachers of their children's faith, in the ways of the Catholic faith. The diocese has also shifted to an “opted in” option for confirmation for the youth. All 7th grade and older youth and their parents who are interested in hearing more about this “opt in” option please attend the parent meeting on August 19th at 6:30pm.
