

Be inspired by the extraordinary witness of Blessed Stanley Rother, the first American-born priest recognized as a martyr and beatified by the Catholic Church.

American Martyr: The Stanley Rother Story tells the remarkable true story of a missionary priest who chose to remain with his people in Guatemala despite grave danger, ultimately giving his life for Christ. His example of courageous faith, sacrificial service, missionary discipleship, and unwavering trust in God continues to inspire Catholics across the United States.

As we celebrate the 250th anniversary of our nation, Blessed Stanley's story reminds us of the enduring call to live our faith with courage and conviction. We encourage you to experience this powerful documentary when it comes to theaters nationwide on August 25–26 (English) and August 27 (Spanish).

SAINTS

Feast of Saint Monica

Dr. Tim Gray & Dr. John Sehorn

FORMEDNOW

Feast of Saint Monica | Catholic Saints

Throughout her life, St. Monica constantly prayed for the conversion of Augustine, her beloved son. In a moment of desperation, she even asked for the bishop's help. In response, he said, "the son of those tears surely will not perish." Truly, as this bishop remarked, Monica's tearful prayers helped build her son into the Doctor of Grace. In this video, join Dr. Gray and Dr. Sehorn as they discuss this great Saint.

RESTLESS HEART

Restless Heart

This film on the life of St. Augustine offers a message of conversion and redemption. It is the story of a gifted man who pursues fame and fortune without a moral compass - and the dramatic changes that occur in his soul when challenging events lead him to see the light of truth.

Matthew 16: 13-20 "Who do you say I am?" (v15)

Practically everyone who came into contact with Jesus realized that there was something special about him. Who was he? Could he be a reincarnation of someone from the Jews' golden age of prophecy-maybe Jeremiah or Elijah (v14)? Or perhaps John the Baptist had escaped Herod's prison despite all the rumors. If your own history and geography is the limit of your thinking, those were not unreasonable speculations.

However, Peter (or as he was known at the time, Simon) had spent a great deal of time in the company of Jesus. Like anyone who devotes themselves to Jesus over a sustained period, he was beginning to see things from God's point of view. To recognize Jesus as the Messiah as an extraordinary thing. To confess him as the Son of the Living God was beyond extraordinary (v16)

It was a transformative moment for Peter. Like Abraham before him, he received a new name. Like Abraham he became known as "the rock" (Isaiah 51:1-2) And like Abraham his act of faith enabled a new starting point in God's plan of salvation for all humankind.

"Look, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut," declared Jesus in a vision some decades later (Revelation 3:8). It was open because the keys were in safe hands (v19). It's still open. Come in out of the cold.
