Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.

A vibrant poster for a summer picnic. At the top, a large wooden cross is set against a background of a bright sun with rays and a blue sky with white clouds. To the right of the cross, the text "BAKKE" is in large, bold, blue letters with red double chevrons on either side. Below it, "LUTHERAN CHURCH" is in smaller, bold, blue letters. The words "SUMMER" and "PICNIC" are in very large, bold, brown letters. To the right of the text, there is an illustration of a picnic basket with a red and white checkered blanket, a yellow mustard bottle, and a red ketchup bottle. Below the main title, a dark blue banner contains the date and time "AUG. 23 | 10:30 AM to 1 PM" in yellow and white text, flanked by red double chevrons. Below this banner, on a white background, is a black pig icon, the text "PORK SANDWICHES", a red dot, the text "FREE WILL OFFERING", and icons of a fork, a plate, and a knife. At the bottom, a brown banner features the text "ALL ARE WELCOME!" in white, bold, italicized letters, flanked by red double chevrons. The bottom of the poster shows a green location pin icon, the address "27492 Co. Hwy. 32 Detroit Lakes, MN 56501", and a globe icon followed by the website "bakkelutheranchurch.com".

Cursillo (pronounced KER SEE O) is an abbreviation of the full title: CURSILLO DE CRISTIANDAD which means "A Short Course in Christian Community Living." The weekend is a three-day learning, sharing, inspirational experience of living in a Christian community. During the three days of a Cursillo weekend a person not only hears inspiring talks on what it really means to be a Christian, but actually experiences the joy of building and being part of a genuine Christian community.

THE LINEN THAT WRAPPED JESUS... AND THE CORPORAL ON THE ALTAR (A HIDDEN CONNECTION MOST MISS) _____

When Jesus was taken down from the Cross... His Body was wrapped in linen cloths

And laid in the tomb (John 19:40) Today, at every Mass... A small white cloth is spread on the altar It is called the corporal. Is this just coincidence? No. There is a deep connection, one that most Catholics have never noticed.

1. THE LINEN OF THE TOMB, A BODY PREPARED FOR BURIAL After His death: Joseph of Arimathea took the Body Nicodemus brought spices They wrapped Him in clean linen, Not casually. With reverence. This linen touched: The lifeless Body of Christ.

2. THE CORPORAL, A CLOTH FOR THE BODY OF CHRIST At Mass: The corporal is unfolded on the altar The chalice and host are placed on it Why? Because it is the place prepared for: The Body of Christ. Not ordinary bread. The same Christ.

3. FROM TOMB TO ALTAR, THE SAME MYSTERY Here is the connection: In the tomb, Christ's Body rests in linen On the altar, Christ's Body rests on the corporal Different moments... But the same Lord. The altar is not just a table. It is: A tomb, A place of sacrifice, A place of presence.

4. THE RESURRECTION DETAIL MOST PEOPLE MISS When Peter entered the tomb: "He saw the linen cloths lying there..." (John 20:6) The Body was gone. But the linen remained. Why? Because death could not hold Him. Now at Mass: The corporal remains... But Christ becomes present again. This is the mystery: The One who left the linen... returns sacramentally to the altar.

5. THE CORPORAL REMINDS US: THIS IS NOT SYMBOLIC The Church is careful: The corporal is treated with reverence It catches even the smallest particle Why? Because this is not representation. This is Real Presence. The same Body: Wrapped in linen, Laid in the tomb, Risen in glory, Is given to you in the Eucharist.

FINAL MESSAGE The linen of the tomb... Held the Body of a crucified Christ. The corporal on the altar... Receives the Body of the risen Christ. Different moments. One mystery. So next time you see the corporal opened at Mass... Remember the tomb. Because the same Jesus who was wrapped in linen... Is now given to you as Bread of Life. The altar quietly echoes the tomb—because the Eucharist makes present the same sacrifice, now in glory. #CatholicsOnlineClass

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time (August 23, 2026)

“Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” Matthew 16:13

The answers the disciples gave to Jesus’ question varied because they recognized some of the attributes of individual prophets in Jesus. Peter saw what the Messiah was supposed to be because Jesus reflected who He was. A steward reflects generosity and this is immediately recognizable to all that he meets.

Question of the week

Wo do you say that Jesus is?

Liturgy of the Hours: Week I of the Psalter

Reflection of the Gospel

Just as the disciples’ naming Jesus as “Christ,” or “Messiah,” and partnering with him in his messianic mission helped him to embrace all that being the anointed one entailed, so too Jesus’s identification of Peter and the believing community as “rock solid” brough forth that quality in them. Likewise, we are invited to let Jesus and our faith community call forth our deepest identity as followers of the anointed, whose solidity is sure.

Prayer for the Dead

In Your hands, O Lord, we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters. In this life You embraced them with Your tender love; deliver them now from every evil and bid them eternal rest. The old order has passed away: welcome them into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping or pain, but fullness of peace and joy with Your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer Requests:

The following people or their family has asked us to pray for them:

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy.

Prayer for the Holy Father

Almighty and everlasting God, have mercy upon Thy servant, Pope Leo XIV, our Supreme Pontiff, and direct him, according to Thy loving kindness, in the way of eternal salvation; that, of Thy gift, he may ever desire that which is pleasing unto Thee and may accomplish it with all his might. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen. Our Father. Hail Mary.

A Prayer of Solidarity and Hope in Suffering

Lord Jesus, from your pierced heart on the Cross we have received the gift of your Body and Blood poured out to wash away our sins and to give us eternal life. We pray for our brothers and sisters in the Diocese of Crookston whose hearts are also pierced because they will no longer have weekend Mass in their parish church.

We ask you to be close to them, to let them experience your tender love. Be with them as they join new communities in our diocese. May we lovingly embrace these new parishioners, and together may we work to strengthen our parishes and become your witnesses for generations to come.

We also pray for more vocations to the priesthood in the Diocese of Crookston; help the young men of our parish to hear your call to serve you with their whole lives.

Through the intercession of Our Lady of Sorrows, may this experience of the Cross become a source of new spiritual life in our diocese.

St. Mary, Badger, St. Mary, Euclid, St. Philip, Falun, St. Francis, Fisher, St. Ann, Goodridge, St. Francis Xavier, Oklee, St. Joseph, Oslo are the parishes affected.
