✚ WHAT HAPPENS IF YOU DON'T BELIEVE?

St. Paul gives a serious warning: “Whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily eats and drinks judgment upon himself.” (1 Corinthians 11:29)

This is why the Church insists: - You must believe. - You must be prepared.

- You must be in a state of grace. Your Amen is not magic. It is a confession of faith.

✚ HEAVEN HEARS YOUR “AMEN”

When you say Amen: - Heaven hears a confession. - Angels witness a covenant.

- Christ responds by giving Himself to you. This is why the Church does not say Amen for you. You must say it yourself. Faith cannot be borrowed.

✚ FINAL THOUGHT

Jesus places Himself in the priest’s hands. But He places Himself in your body only after hearing your faith. That tiny word, spoken by children, spoken by the weak, spoken by sinners longing for mercy, opens the door for God Himself. So next time you step forward, don’t rush it. Look at the Host. Hear the words. And when you say Amen, know this: 🙏 You are not responding to bread. You are welcoming God.

From the Desk of Fr. Hamness:

The Beatification Mass of Archbishop Fulton Sheen is coming up this Thursday at 1:30 p.m. Please gather your family a friends to watch it online. This is a monumental day for the Catholic Church in the United States of America. Archbishop Sheen was first listened to on the radio and then watched on the television from people of all walks of life in America and by people of every Christian Denomination. I am lucky enough to attend the Mass in person, and I hope that you will attend virtually. Follow the QR code below to find the livestream. Just point your phone’s camera at this image and follow the link that pops up.

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time (September 20, 2026)

“So when the first came they thought they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner.... ‘My friend,’ he said, ‘I am doing you no wrong.... Are you envious because I am generous?’” Matthew 20:9-15

As God servants, the gifts we receive from God are not a result of the work we do, but a result of Gods generosity. Our stewardship should mirror the generosity of the estate owner. Stewards give without questioning what they will get in return.

Question of the week

When have I resented the generosity shown to someone else? When have I failed to realize the generosity shown to me?

Liturgy of the Hours: Week I of the Psalter Reflection of the Gospel

The question posed by the vineyard owner in today’s parable-“Are you envious because I am generous?”— points out the destructiveness of envy in a community. The question is about God’s goodness, which is extended equally to all, and how difficult it is for us not to look enviously on goodness poured out on others, even as it has been lavished upon ourselves. It is not however, a great relief that God’s justice does not mean that people get from God only what they deserve? -Living Liturgy™ , Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time 2026

Prayer Requests:

The following people or their family has asked us to pray for them:

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy.

WHY JESUS WAITS FOR ONE WORD FROM YOU BEFORE ENTERING YOU

There is a moment at Mass that lasts less than one second. But heaven watches it closely. You step forward. The priest raises the Host and says:

“The Body of Christ.” And then, everything stops. Jesus waits. Not for angels. Not for music. Not for the priest. He waits for one word from you.

THAT ONE WORD IS “AMEN”

Most people say it softly. Some say it quickly. Many say it without thinking. But this little word is one of the boldest statements of faith a human being can make. “Amen” does not mean “okay.” It does not mean “I agree a bit.” Amen means: “This is true.” “I believe.” “I stake my life on this.” When you say Amen before Communion, you are saying: “I believe this is not bread. I believe this is not a symbol. I believe this is Jesus Christ Himself, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.”

WHY JESUS WILL NOT FORCE HIMSELF ON YOU

Here is the shocking truth: Jesus never enters you without your consent. At the Annunciation, He waited for Mary’s “Let it be done to me.” At Communion, He waits for your “Amen.” God always knocks. He never breaks the door. Your Amen is your free welcome. It is you saying: “Come, Lord Jesus.”

Prayer for the Dead

In Your hands, O Lord, we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters. In this life You embraced them with Your tender love; deliver them now from every evil and bid them eternal rest. The old order has passed away: welcome them into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping or pain, but fullness of peace and joy with Your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.
