

Join Us at Rescue Live on October 10
Join Bishop Andrew Cozzens and Catholics from across the Diocese of Crookston for Rescue Live on October 10 from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the Alerus Center Ballroom in Grand Forks, ND. Fr. John Riccardo of Acts XXIX will lead this day-long Catholic Revival where he will lead us through an understanding of the faith as Created, Captured, Rescued, and Response. This will be a powerful experience of the gospel, worship, fellowship, and the call to mobilize for mission. Music ministry will be provided by acclaimed singer-songwriter Sarah Kroger.

National Mental Health Sunday — October 11
Pope Leo XIV has designated October 2026 as a time for Catholics to join him in praying that “mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.” In response, the USCCB is inviting Catholic communities across the country to observe Sunday, October 11, 2026, as National Mental Health Sunday.

Nationwide Novena for Mental Health In October 2026, Pope Leo XIV is inviting the world to join him in prayer for Catholic mental health ministries and their work to respond to the global mental health crisis. The U.S. Catholic Bishops (USCCB) developed an annual Novena for Mental Health, which Catholics across the country are praying together from October 10 to 18, 2026. You can join in on this Novena by going to <https://www.usccb.org/mental-health-novena>. Additionally, stay connected to the USCCB's National Catholic Mental Health Campaign, a year round initiative to encourage all people of good will to get engaged in this outreach. More details and resources can be found online at <https://www.usccb.org/mentalhealth>.

Jesus often uses parables to respond to queries from the temple leadership, and we see this in Matthew 21. The chief priests and elders question Jesus’ authority, and Jesus responds with a parable about two sons. The father asks his sons to go to the vineyard and work. The first son says “no”—but eventually changes his mind and goes. The second son says “yes”—but never goes to work in the vineyard.

Jesus compares the two sons to the tax collectors and prostitutes, on the one hand, and the chief priests and elders, on the other hand. The ones most expected to understand and do God’s will, the religious leadership, fail. The ones least expected to understand and do God’s will, the ones most culturally despised, do the will of God. Actions speak louder than words.

Jesus asks, “What does it mean to say yes to God?” Saying “yes” is not the same as doing God’s will. Jesus reminds us that words alone are not enough. The second son says all the right things: “Yes, sir,” but then does nothing.

Similarly, we may also become very good at saying the right things to God without living them. We can say: “I believe in love,” but not love. We can say: “I believe in justice,” but not practice justice. We can say: “I follow Jesus,” but not follow him. True obedience requires action and a humble heart, not just empty religious words.

The religious people who thought they already had the right answers were refusing to go into the vineyard. The people we think are far from God may actually be closer to God than we imagine. The people who think they are closest to God may discover that they have stopped listening. It is possible to become so certain we are right that we no longer hear God’s invitation. We can become so comfortable with our theology that we stop being transformed by the gospel.
