

Do you know how unique and special Crookston Serra Ministry is? In 2022, Bishop Cozzens asked his mother, a Serra Past President in Mpls to start a 1st time Serra Club in Crookston. Because of the vast size of this Diocese and distance between churches, it was decided to hold meetings via ZOOM. We are the only "Serra Club" worldwide, that has successfully maintained our Charter using Zoom. Chartered April 2023.Meetings are 1 hour, 2nd Monday/ month. We do pay annual dues of 100./ year to help fund our club, pamphlets, annual Dinner with the Bishop, and support Serra International. (much like the Lions Club does) Our main task is to support our current Priests and Seminarians, Deacons, and Sisters in Religious Life.. We would LOVE to have you join us!! You can join a meeting to check it out. The Oct. 12th Meeting, will feature our 2nd Year Seminarian, Phil Hodapp, who will share his Vocation Story. See you there...Erv and Joan

Mystical Roses Advent Retreat in Crookston at the Nazareth Retreat House

Friday, December 4 - Sunday, December 6, 2026

During Advent, we celebrate two beautiful Marian feast days: the Feast of the Immaculate Conception (December 8) and the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe (December 12). These celebrations are fittingly placed within this season of joyful expectation and preparation for the coming of Jesus Christ.

One of Mary's most beloved titles is "Mystical Rose," a reminder of the supernatural beauty of the one who brings the fragrance of Christ into the world and draws souls into his presence. Fittingly, it was roses that miraculously bloomed in the dead of winter on Tepeyac Hill—given by Our Lady and gathered by St. Juan Diego as the sign that confirmed her message.

Please join us at Nazareth Retreat House for a special Marian Advent retreat as we ask Mary, the Mystical Rose, to draw us more deeply into the hope, expectation, and joyful waiting with which she awaited the birth of her Son.

What on earth is the mountain of the Lord of Hosts?

Have you ever wondered what Scripture means when it speaks of the "mountain of the Lord"? In the prophecies of Isaiah and Micah, we hear that in the "last days," this holy mountain will be established above all others, drawing every nation toward it. This powerful imagery reveals the kingdom of God rising far above all rival earthly powers and political regimes, gathering souls from every corner of the earth to receive divine instruction.

As the center of universal peace, this mountain serves as the source of God's law and judgment. From this seat of authority, God arbitrates among nations, inspiring the famous promise that peoples will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks, abandoning warfare for lasting harmony.

Scripture also reveals this holy hill as the site of ultimate fellowship and victory over death. In Isaiah 25, the prophet tells us that "on this mountain the Lord of Hosts will prepare a banquet for all peoples"—a rich feast foreshadowing the eternal heavenly banquet. Crucially, it is here that God promises to swallow up the shroud of death forever and wipe away every tear, signaling the ultimate defeat of mortality and despair.

For us today, this ancient prophecy comes wondrously alive at every celebration of the Eucharist. When we gather for Mass, the altar truly becomes our mountain of the Lord of Hosts. It is here that we partake in the heavenly banquet prepared for all peoples, receiving the very Body and Blood of Christ as our foretaste of eternal victory.

Finally, the title "Lord of Hosts" (Yahweh Sabaoth) reminds us of God's absolute sovereignty over the armies of heaven and the physical universe. Despite the constant rise and fall of earthly empires, the divine order centered on this holy mountain remains invincible. As we journey in faith, let us look toward this mountain, trusting in the eternal peace and victory won for us by our Almighty God.
