WAYS TO BE WILD:

COMMUNITY ARTWORK

With Raylene Button

Join Kariyarra Elder Raylene Button from Spinifex Hill Studio, for a communal wildlife painting project celebrating the region's native animals and plants. Inspired by the Spring into Parks theme, Ways to Be Wild, everyone is invited to add their own touch of local colour, story and wildlife. Once complete, the artwork will become a lasting celebration of the Pilbara community and its incredible natural environment. Supported by Spring into Parks, a WA Parks Foundation initiative, and Lotterywest.

HEDLAND ARTS PRESENTS: IN THE NEIGHBOURHOOD

WITH ERIN NELSON & VIKO LIU

An installation and activity workshop acting as an ode to Hedland and all its quirks! Try out some street art with Viko's "Friendly Fences" activity: make your own mini fence and paint it your way. On the other side of the central sculpture installation you can find Erin at "Home is where the HARTZ is." Create a miniature clay house of your home to add to the central sculpture in your neighbourhood.

Ages 4+

ART ON THE GO

With Renae Coles

Create your own mini sculptural arrangement in a display box, then crack it open and move it around for a constantly refreshing artwork.
