PROFILE

Sasha is a Partner in the Firm with more than 16 years of litigation experience. She advises and represents clients across a broad range of contentious matters, including complex commercial disputes, shareholders' disputes, directors' duties, personal and corporate insolvency, corporate rescue mechanisms, contractual and tortious disputes, and committal proceedings.

Her experience also extends beyond Malaysia. As part of the team of instructing solicitors, Sasha was actively involved in, and attended, trial before the High Court of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court in the British Virgin Islands, the subsequent appeal before the Court of Appeal of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court, and the final appeal before the Privy Council.

In addition to her legal qualifications, Sasha is a member of the Malaysian Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators (MAICSA), bringing an added layer of governance and corporate insight to her practice.

Sasha is known for her determined, focused and practical approach to litigation and dispute resolution. She is committed to protecting her clients' rights, guiding them through challenging disputes with clarity, and ensuring they feel supported and confident throughout the process.

Sasha speaks English and Bahasa Malaysia and is conversant in Japanese.
