FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NECHAMA names ROBIN ANDERSON DIRECTOR OF INTERNAL OPERATIONS

Jewish communal operations leader with more than 20 years of experience joins the national disaster relief organization

St. Paul, Minnesota - November 16, 2026 – NECHAMA – Jewish Response to Disaster today announced that Robin Anderson will join the organization as its first Director of Internal Operations. Anderson begins her work with NECHAMA on November 18.

Robin brings over 20 years of experience in Jewish communal and nonprofit operations, with a focus on the systems that help teams thrive. Most recently, she served as Director of Operations at Camp Ramah in Wisconsin and Ramah Day Camp, overseeing finance, HR, facilities, and year-round operations serving more than 1,000 campers and staff each year. Before that, she was the inaugural Director of Operations at Keshet, a Chicago-based organization that supports children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities in reaching their full potential. Anderson also spent 16 years at Camp Young Judaea Midwest, rising from Associate Director to Executive Director.

"NECHAMA is advancing our ambitious growth strategy while recognizing that change management is an important bridge from where we have been to where we are going," said Stephan Kline, Chief Executive Officer of NECHAMA. "Robin has the expertise, experience and personal warmth to advance this while being my thought partner. I am delighted to welcome her to the team."

Robin holds an MA from Brandeis University and a BA from Indiana University. She lives in the Chicago area with her husband and their three children.

Robin can be reached at randerson@nechama.org.

About NECHAMA

Rooted in the Jewish value of tikkun olam (repairing the world), NECHAMA – Jewish Response to Disaster engages volunteers in disaster relief, rebuilds people's lives, and provides comfort and hope to communities affected by disaster. Marking thirty years of service, NECHAMA is the only national Jewish organization dedicated to disaster relief and recovery in the United States. Learn more at nechama.org.
