Application Checklist

- Application Complete in Full
- Detailed Plan
- Supplementary Materials

By signing this application, the property owner acknowledges and agrees to the following:

1. Applicant is owner and occupant of the property funding is being requested for.
2. Repairs that are structural in nature are generally not eligible for grant funding, but will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.
3. Owner must secure all permits and a Certificate of Appropriateness prior to the start of work. Newburgh Neighbors can assist with this process.
4. Owner will agree to sign an agreement, which contains a reimbursement in the event that the property is sold within one year of completion of the project.

5. One hundred percent payment of the approved grant amount will be disbursed only when the project is completed and approved, and receipts for work are received and approved by the Newburgh Historic Preservation Commission Administrator.
