- 4 CHANGES: Buyer may at any time, by written notice, make changes in the specifications, designs or drawings, quantities, samples or other description to which any items are to conform, in methods of shipment and packaging, or place of delivery. If Buyer and Seller mutually agree that such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for, the performance of any part of the work under the Purchase Order, an equitable adjustment shall be made in the price or delivery schedule, or both, and the Purchase Order shall be modified accordingly. Seller shall make no substitutions or changes to the items furnished to Buyer without prior written approval from Buyer.

- 7 PERFORMANCE OF SUPPLY AT BUYER'S SITE:
  - 7.1 If the Supply is performed (either fully or partially) at Buyer's sites, Supplier shall provide in advance a list of the personnel that will be accessing Buyer's site. Buyer reserves the right to refuse any person access to its site for security reasons. Supplier will take the necessary measures to ensure that if any persons are denied access, this will not have a negative impact on the performance or the quality of the Supply. Supplier shall ensure that its personnel and any subcontractors respect the rules of access to the site, security requirements, including in relation to information technology (IT), confidentiality rules, as well as the provisions of the internal rules of conduct which apply to all persons within one of Purchaser's establishment as employees of an external company, including hygiene and safety rules and general working conditions.

Seller shall include evidence documenting all such costs, and such claim shall be subject to audit by Buyer. In no event shall such amount exceed the amount of the cancelled Purchase Order. The Purchase Order expressly includes all implied warranties and all of the Buyer's remedies set forth in the Uniform Commercial Code. Buyer's approval of samples shall not be construed as a waiver by the Buyer of any requirement of the drawings, specifications, and/or other descriptions applicable hereto, or as a waiver of an expressed or implied warranty of the Seller unless specifically waived by Buyer in writing by authorized personnel. Seller warrants that all items and material used in the manufacture of the Purchase Order are monitored for impending obsolescence issues, and that Seller will provide immediate formal notification and a proposal of alternatives to Buyer as soon as a pending obsolescence issue or event is known to Seller. Seller will endeavor to minimize cost and operational impacts to Buyer and Buyer's customers. Buyer may, at its option, either return for credit or refund or require prompt correction or replacement of any defective or nonconforming items, in addition to any other rights and remedies available at law or equity. - 21.1 Supplier shall comply with (i) all applicable Laws relating to anti-corruption or anti-bribery, including, but not limited to legislation implementing the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development "Convention on Combating Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions", the United Nations Convention Against Corruption of 2003, or any other anti-corruption/anti-bribery convention, and (ii) the requirements of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, as amended ("FCPA") (15 U.S.C. §§78dd-1, et seq.), regardless of whether Supplier is within the jurisdiction of the United States, and Supplier shall, neither directly nor indirectly, pay, offer, give, or promise to pay or give, any portion of monies or anything of value received from Purchaser to a non-U.S. public official or any person in violation of the FCPA and/or in violation of any applicable country Laws relating to anti-corruption or anti-bribery.

- 21.5 Applicable Law; Dispute Resolution: By express agreement between the Parties, the Contractual Documents, including all appendices attached hereto, and all claims or causes of action (whether at law, in contract or in tort) that may be based upon, arise out of, or relate to the Contractual Documents or the negotiation, execution or performance thereof, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard to the conflict of laws provisions thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of California. The Parties agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods does not apply to these General Purchasing Conditions.
- 21.6 The Parties shall resolve any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to these General Purchasing Conditions and any applicable Contractual Document, or the breach, termination or invalidity hereof (each, a "Dispute"), under the provisions of Article 25. The procedures set forth in Article 25 shall be the exclusive mechanism for resolving any Dispute that may arise from time to time.
- 21.7 The Parties shall first attempt in good faith to resolve any Dispute by negotiation and consultation between themselves. In the event that such Dispute is not resolved on an informal basis within thirty (30) calendar days after one Party provides notice to the other Party of such Dispute ("Dispute Notice"), either Party may, by written notice to the other Party ("Escalation to Executive Notice"), refer such dispute to the executives of each Party or to such other person of equivalent or superior position designated by such party in a written Notice to the other Party, ("Executive(s)").

- 21.8 If the Executives cannot resolve any Dispute during the time period ending thirty (30) calendar days after the date of the Escalation to Executive Notice (the last day of such time period, the "Escalation to Mediation Date"), either Party may initiate mediation under Article 22.9 hereinafter.
- 21.9 Subject to Article 22.8, the Parties may, at any time after the Escalation to Mediation Date, submit the Dispute to any mutually agreed to mediation service for mediation by providing to the mediation service a joint, written request for mediation, setting forth the subject of the dispute and the relief requested. The Parties shall cooperate with the mediation service and with one another in selecting a neutral mediator and in scheduling the mediation proceedings. The Parties covenant that they will use commercially reasonable efforts in participating in the mediation. The Parties agree that the mediator's fees and expenses and the costs incidental to the mediation will be shared equally between the parties.
- 21.10 The Parties further agree that all offers, promises, conduct and statements, whether oral or written, made in the course of the mediation by any of the Parties, their agents, employees, experts and attorneys, and by the mediator and any employees of the mediation service, are confidential, privileged and inadmissible for any purpose, including impeachment, in any litigation, arbitration or other proceeding involving the Parties, provided that evidence that is otherwise admissible or discoverable shall not be rendered inadmissible or non-discoverable as a result of its use in the mediation.
- 21.11 If the Parties cannot resolve for any reason, including, but not limited to, the failure of either Party to agree to enter into mediation or agree to any settlement proposed by the mediator, any Dispute within sixty (60) calendar days after the Escalation to Mediation Date, either Party may commence binding arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Article 22.12.
- 21.12 All disputes arising out of or in connection with the General Purchasing Conditions and any applicable Contractual Document, shall be finally settled under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) by one or more arbitrators appointed in accordance with said Rules. The seat of the Arbitral Tribunal shall be New York, New York. The arbitration shall be held, and the award shall be rendered, in the English language. The award shall be final and binding on the Parties and may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction.
- 22 FORCE MAJEURE: Supplier shall be liable for any failure or delay in performance in connection with the Order, except where such failure or delay results from causes that are, at one and the same time, unforeseeable, unavoidable, outside of its control and without its fault or negligence, provided Supplier gives Buyer, within three (3) calendar days of Supplier's learning of such cause, written notice to the effect that a failure or delay by Supplier will occur or has occurred (an "Excusable Delay"). If a failure or delay in performance is caused by an event affecting Supplier's own suppliers or subcontractors, such failure or delay shall not be excusable unless the cause for these delays may be considered an Excusable Delay as defined above and the good or service to be provided by such supplier is not obtainable by Supplier from other sources in time for timely delivery of the Supply to Buyer. Buyer may cancel without liability an Order in whole or in part for purchase of any Supply affected by Supplier's failure or delay in performance due to an Excusable Delay, if the delay is expected to last for a period of thirty (30) calendar days or more.
- 22.1 Buyer shall be excused for any failure or delay in performance due to any cause beyond its reasonable control, including any cause attributable to Buyer's Customers.
