Eventspaces hidden between the docks

THE SITE

Between the Ghent docks and the industrial zone lies Chinastraat, a unique event venue housed in a former dog food factory. This characterful building has been transformed into an unconventional site where creativity and experience take center stage. With an accompanying summer bar, the location offers a unique setting for any type of event.

Chinastraat features several spaces without fixed functions, making the possibilities endless. Its industrial yet cozy character makes it the ideal place for both intimate gatherings and large-scale events.

Curious about what we have to offer? Discover all the possibilities.

De Tuin or the Garden is a unique outdoor space that serves as a summer bar during the summer months. Outside the season, this venue is available for your own events. Nestled in the urban wilderness of Ghent, The Garden offers a blend of nature and creativity, with original structures made from recycled and reclaimed materials. It's an unconventional place where both young and old can escape the hustle and bustle of the city for a while.

APPLICATIONS

With plenty of seating options and a few covered spots, The Garden is a popular choice for anyone looking for an atmospheric outdoor setting. It's perfect for a wide range of events. From a cozy company gathering to a wedding reception, the possibilities are endless.

SMALL ROOM

The Kleine Zaal or Small Hall, with 150m<sup>2</sup>, is the little sibling of the Large Hall, but certainly not less interesting. Despite its smaller size, this space offers plenty of possibilities for intimate events. Located next to the locker area, the Small Hall is ideal for groups looking for a practical space, but just a bit smaller.

APPLICATIONS

The Kleine Zaal is perfect for a variety of events, such as birthday parties and nightlife concepts, but can also be used for smaller workshops or private receptions. With the right setup, the hall adapts flexibly to the desired atmosphere and style.

The Hangaar or Hangar is a 600m<sup>2</sup> space with an industrial character, perfect for a wide range of applications. Its open layout allows the space to be fully customized. With excellent accessibility and the ability to drive (freight) trucks inside, the Hangar is ideal for large setups and events.

APPLICATIONS

This versatile space is perfect for covered markets, trade shows, and workshops for larger groups. The combination of space, accessibility, and flexibility makes the Hangar a popular choice for large-scale events. The Hangaar is not rented out for nightlife concepts.

BY BIKE

Chinastraat is easiest accessible by bike from Ghent. Just 10 minutes of cycling from the heart of Ghent, you'll be at our event site in no time.

BY PUBLIC TRANSPORT

The bus stops near our site provide connections to Gent Zuid and the Gent-Dampoort train station. Additionally, there's a tram connection to UZ and Ledeborg, linking to the Gent-Sint-Pieters train station.

BY CAR

Thanks to its location on the edge of the city, the site is easily accessible by car via the R4 and is outside the low-emission zone. There are plenty of public parking spaces within walking distance. For large events, we can also collaborate with nearby parking lots to utilize their facilities.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATION - SHUTTLE SERVICE

Would you like to offer your guests accommodation after the event? In collaboration with our partner hotels, we provide overnight stays, including shuttle buses to and from our event location.
