In our Bible story today, we learned about Samson, a man God made special from head to toe. God gave Samson incredible strength through his hair to help protect his people from the Philistines. However, Samson was tricked by a woman named Delilah. After he revealed the secret of his strength, she had his hair shaved off, and he was captured. But while in prison, Samson's hair grew back. In his final moments, God gave him the strength to defeat his enemies by pushing over the prison's columns. Even though Samson made wrong choices, his life was always special to God. Just like Samson, God made each of us unique, and our lives are incredibly special to Him too!
