Today's Bible story comes from the book of Matthew. We will hear that Jesus talked to a group of people about what they should do when they worry.

DISCUSS & DISCOVER

1. Jesus taught that we can look to God when we are worried. Jesus told us to do this because God loves us and will provide for us. We cannot get rid of our worries on our own. Only our trustworthy God can bring us peace. How can the gift of God's peace help us every day? (Answers may include God can give me peace when I feel worried or afraid; God can help when I am upset or angry; God can give me peace when something goes wrong, or when the people around me need help; and so forth.)
2. When you feel bad, make a mistake, or make a wrong choice, who do you trust to help you feel better and make it right? (Answers may include my mom; my teacher; and so forth.) While we have trustworthy people in our lives, we can also be sure that God is trustworthy
3. When you are worried, how does this Bible story say you can respond? (Answers may include I can bring my worries to God; I can read my Bible and trust God's promises; and so forth.)

Pray: God, thank You for the truth that You care for us. Thank You that when we worry, we can trust that You are in control. Help us to trust like Jesus and shine Your light before others. Amen.
