Connect

Today's Bible story from the New Testament books of Luke and John invites you and your child to discover how Jesus forgave a man named Peter and made him whole. As you watch together, you'll get to explore this amazing account of forgiveness and see firsthand how wonderful it is to be fully restored by Jesus.

DISCUSS & DISCOVER

1. Jesus talked with Peter after he lied about knowing Jesus. Instead of being mad, Jesus welcomed Peter and gave him an important job. Jesus showed Peter that he was forgiven and could have a fresh start. How can this Bible story remind you about the way God sees you and your sin? (Even when we sin, God forgives us when we ask and make the way for us to be whole. God does not make us feel bad about sin but invites us to turn away from sin so we can follow Him.)
2. When Jesus forgave Peter, Jesus made Peter whole again and gave him a fresh start. What do you think is different between being broken and not forgiven versus being forgiven and made whole by God? (When we are broken and not forgiven, we can feel guilt and shame over our sin. When we are forgiven and made whole by God, we experience His joy and peace.)
3. How can what we learned from today's Bible story help someone who feels ashamed or embarrassed because of wrong choices? (We can know that God forgives us and does not make us feel embarrassed or ashamed. God invites us to follow Him, and He makes us whole, forgiving our sin and fixing the brokenness in our lives.)

Pray: God, thank You so much for loving us and forgiving us, even when we make wrong choices. Thank You for giving us a fresh start and making us whole so we can follow You and live the way You made us to live. Help us remember Your forgiveness, follow You, and show Your love to others. Amen.
