

Accessibility Statement

Double AA Corporation is committed to ensuring that our website is accessible to people with disabilities. We strive to conform to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) version 2.1, Level AA, published by the World Wide Web Consortium (W3C). These guidelines explain how to make web content more accessible to people with a wide range of disabilities.

We are continually improving the user experience for everyone and applying the relevant accessibility standards. If you have difficulty accessing any part of this website, or if you have suggestions or need assistance, please contact us at info@doubleaacorporation.com or (650) 589-7722. Please describe the issue and the web page involved, and we will work to provide the information or service you need through an accessible method.
