Recommendation 2.7
1. Board has overall responsibility in ensuring that there is a group-wide policy and system governing related party transactions (RPTs) and other unusual or infrequently occurring transactions.	Compliant	Per Company's Revised Manual, the Board of Directors has the duty to ensure that there is a group-wide policy and system governing related parties and related party transactions, particularly those which pass a certain threshold of materiality. The Company has an RPT Policy, and an RPT Committee to ensure that all RPTs are (i) at arm's length in accordance with transfer pricing rules; (ii) fair, or are based on market practices, and (iii) inure to the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. The RPT Policy also establishes a particular level of reporting

The RPT Committee, composed entirely of Independent Directors, deliberate on material and significant RPTs across the Group, taking into account the size, structure, risk profile and complexity of the Company's operations. The Company's Revised RPT Policy ensures that all RPTs within the group are conducted at arm's-length and at market prices, undergo the appropriate approval process, and material RPTs are reported within the period prescribed by the SEC. In February 2024, the members of the Board merged the ESCG and RPT Committees into the SGRPT Committee. The integration of committee functions is aligned with the AEV Board's initiative to improve the efficiency of the Company's Board Committee Structure by streamlining its processes and protocols. However, to ensure good corporate governance, only Independent Directors can deliberate and vote for matters involving the review and approval of RPTs. In 2024, the Company did not enter into any material related party transactions and there was no reported case of non-compliance with the laws, rules and regulations pertaining to material RPTs. All RPTs were conducted at arm's-length basis. Links/references are as follows: i. Amended Manual on Corporate Governance, pp. 44-45, Part C. The aggregate amount of RPTs within any twelve (12) month period should be considered for purposes of applying the thresholds for disclosure and approval. Provide information on a materiality threshold for RPT disclosure and approval, if any. Provide information on RPT categories		material RPTs or RPTs amounting to ten percent (10%) or higher of a company's total assets. The new rule also specified an approval process for material RPTs and mandated publicly listed companies to notify the SEC of their RPTs that breach the threshold. Any RPT involving Directors or Corporate Officers, regardless of amount, requires the review and approval by the Board of Directors. In 2021, the AEV Board amended the Revised RPT Policy to further strengthen the review, reportorial, and approval processes of RPTs, particularly those falling below the SEC-defined materiality threshold. In 2024, the Company did not enter into any material related party transactions and there was no reported case of non-compliance with the laws, rules and regulations pertaining to material RPTs. In addition, all common shareholders of the Company are entitled to the exact same voting rights. In addition, the Board has created the RPT Committee composed entirely of Independent Directors. The Company's RPT Policy also sets out clear guidelines as to the manner in which related-party transactions are presented to the RPT Committee and the transactions that require action on the part of the RPT Committee. Finally, the Company also presents all Board and Company actions (including all related-party transactions) for ratification at each annual shareholders meeting. In 2019, the Company has adopted the Revised RPT Policy in compliance with SEC Memorandum Circular No. 10 series of 2019. The new rule outlined the required reporting and approval process for material RPTs or RPTs amounting to ten percent (10%) or higher of a company's total assets, which includes the ratification by the stockholders representing 2/3 of the Company's outstanding capital stock if the majority vote of the Independent Directors were not secured. In 2021, the AEV Board amended the Revised RPT Policy to further strengthen the review, reportorial, and approval processes of RPTs, particularly those falling below the SEC-defined materiality threshold. The RPT Committee continued to ensure that RPTs are entered into on an arm's-length basis, within market rates, and with sufficient documentation.
