SIGNAL & STAGE

Tamsin Deasey-Weinstein

The human side of AI, governance and the future of work

Tamsin Deasey-Weinstein speaks and advises on the human side of AI, AI governance and the future of AI across healthcare, financial services, government, business and education. She is AI and Intelligence Lead to the Office of the Premier of the Cayman Islands, where she leads the Intelligence and Transformation pillar of the national digital transformation strategy. She advises Big Four firms, sits on an IEEE Responsible AI standards committee, hosts The AI Wave on CMR TV, writes for Forbes and comments for the BBC World Service. Her research on AI and workforce development is published in The Round Table. She holds credentials from Oxford Saïd, MIT and the IAPP.

Topics to explore

- Implementing AI with people in mind
- The future of AI: where we may end up and what humans need to do
- AI governance that boards and regulators can use
- National AI strategy
- AI and the future of work: skills, capability and credentials

Plan the right session

Tell us who will be in the room, your event date and the question you want the session to address. We will discuss audience fit and confirm the speaker, format, duration and terms.

View profile, sessions and published samples

Discuss your event with Signal & Stage