

View production, quality, and availability data in easy to consume dashboards that will help you make data-driven decisions to improve and scale your packaging process.

Overview

We know your business is unique, all the way down to how your products are packaged. That's why our solutions work in tandem with our software to help you optimize your packaging process flow to meet your needs. PackNet Report gives you access to all the data you need to improve the uptime of your Packsize machines, increase throughput, and minimize waste.

PackNet Report enables operations teams, admins, and internal stakeholders to have meaningful conversations about how to improve efficiency, throughput, and availability by harnessing valuable data. Our metrics, insights, and scores make it easy to quickly identify areas of opportunity and view the outcomes of those improvements to ensure progress is being made.
