COLOGNE, 16. DECEMBER 2024. Zoi, a leading cloud-native technology consultancy, today announced the opening of its new office in Cologne, marking the company's third location in Germany and tenth globally. This expansion underscores Zoi's commitment to serving its growing client base in the Rhine region and bringing technological innovation and job creation to one of Germany's most dynamic economic centers.

The new office, located at Schanzenstraße 35, will house a team of experienced professionals dedicated to providing exceptional service and support to Zoi's clients. The central location, excellent infrastructure, and vibrant tech community of Cologne make it an ideal hub for Zoi to further strengthen its relationships with existing enterprise customers and foster new partnerships.

"We are thrilled to open our new office in Cologne," said Benjamin Hermann, CEO of Zoi. "This expansion represents a significant milestone in our growth strategy and reinforces our commitment to the German market. We look forward to being closer to our valued clients in the region, tapping into the incredible pool of tech talent, and contributing to the digital transformation of the local community."

The company's expansion to Cologne underscores its commitment to providing localized support and services to its clients while maintaining a global perspective. The company's "global for local" value is at the core of its operations, ensuring that clients receive tailored solutions that meet their specific needs.

Zoi's office is located at Schanzenstraße 35 in Cologne.
