Ancient Text, Modern Questions:
Exploring the Six Books of Jewish Wisdom
Facilitated by Andy Greeenberg, Thursdays 11:00am

Course Description: Your course will explore the obvious and secrets of all our ancient books and how to use them in today's modern world in an interactive thought-provoking experience.

Class #1 The Torah
Together we will examine who wrote it, what is it, the stories (true or made up) and is it still viable in our lives.

Class #2 The Prophets
Who are they? Did they really foretell the future, why do we still read about them every week? What do they say about modern day life and should we pay attention?

Class #3 The Talmud
Learn how to win or lose and argument every time by exploring how to listen, examine, research, and convince as we take a deep dive into the text and topics.

Class # 4 The Book of Proverbs
The first written books of self-improvement and motivation ever written, whose insights are still found in today's secular books. You will be amazed and enlightened by its simple life lessons.

Class # 5 The Book of Psalms
The ancient yet modern love poems that are used by many religions to this day. How can one person be so devoted and how can we take that emotion and apply it to our family and friends. This is the true foundation of Hallmark Cards.

Class # 6 The Book of Prayers
Who wrote them? What are the 5 types of prayers? Are prayers answered? Why do hospitals have chapels? Are they outdated or needed now more than ever?
