

CODE OF CONDUCT

Nova Soccer Academy – Code of Conduct

Nova Soccer Academy is a structured, competitive training environment focused on development and accountability. All participants are expected to meet the following standards:

1. Effort and Commitment

Players are expected to attend consistently, compete in every session, and give full effort in training and match play.

2. Respect

Players must treat coaches, teammates, opponents, officials, and staff with respect at all times. Disrespectful behavior, including abusive language or conduct, will not be tolerated.

3. Sportsmanship

Players are expected to compete with integrity and demonstrate good sportsmanship, regardless of outcome.

4. Behavior and Representation

Players represent Nova Soccer Academy at all times, including during training, matches, and any team-related events or travel. Behavior should reflect positively on the program.

5. Prohibited Conduct

The use or possession of alcohol, illegal drugs, tobacco (including vaping), or misuse of prescription drugs is strictly prohibited at all academy-related activities.

6. Accountability

Players are expected to follow instructions and program expectations. Failure to meet these standards may result in reduced playing opportunities, removal from sessions, or dismissal from the program.

7. Dismissal Policy

Serious violations, including but not limited to violence, harassment, or repeated misconduct, may result in immediate removal from the program. No refunds will be issued in such cases.

By participating in Nova Soccer Academy, players and parents acknowledge and agree to uphold this Code of Conduct.
