EARLY YEARS DAY NURSERY UXBRIDGE
October Events Bulletin

We are excited to welcome October at Early Years Day Nursery Uxbridge! A month filled with autumn colours, cosy moments, seasonal activities and exciting adventures as we explore the beauty of autumn with our children.

Black History Month- Throughout of October

Throughout October, we will be celebrating Black History Month. This year's official theme is "Honouring Our Communities."
The children will enjoy stories, music, art and creative activities while learning about Black history, achievements, cultures and traditions. These experiences will also help the children understand the importance of equality, kindness, inclusion and respect for others.

Harvest Festival- Thursday 1st October-Friday 9th October

As part of our Harvest Festival celebrations, we will be collecting donations of non-perishable food items to support our local church and food bank. Donations can be brought to the nursery from Wednesday 30th September to Friday 9th October.
We truly appreciate your kindness and generosity. Your donations will help support local families and individuals who may be in need.

Grandparent's Day- Monday 5th October

We are thrilled to celebrate Grandparents' Day at our nursery on Monday 5th October! We would love to welcome all our wonderful grandparents to spend a special hour with their grandchildren, enjoying a fun Stay and Play Session together.

The sessions will take place on Monday 5th October:

- Baby Room – 9:00am to 10:00am
- Toddler Room – 10:00am to 11:00am
- Preschool Room – 10:30am to 11:30am

Join us for a fun-filled morning of activities, play and special bonding time with your little ones. We look forward to celebrating together and creating lovely memories with our wonderful grandparents!

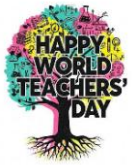

Please RSVP to: manager.uxbridge@early-years.com by Thursday 1st October

As always, thank you for your continued support.

Thank you in advance for your support!
Working together to give every child the best possible start in life.

World Teacher's Day- Tuesday 6th October

On Tuesday 6th October, we will be celebrating World Teachers' Day. The children will take part in fun and creative activities, making special cards, drawings and messages to show their appreciation. It will be a lovely opportunity to celebrate our wonderful nursery team and thank them for their care, kindness and dedication every day.

Navratri Festival- Monday 12th October

During Navaratri, we will be learning about this vibrant Hindu festival, which is celebrated over nine days. Each day honours a different form of the goddess, representing qualities such as strength, courage, kindness and wisdom. The children will explore the celebration through colourful activities, stories, music and creative experiences, helping them learn about and appreciate different cultures and traditions.

We invite all children to join in the celebrations by wearing red or orange clothes on this special day.

Wear it Pink -Friday 23rd October

From Monday 19th to Friday 23rd October, we will be supporting Breast Cancer Now by taking part in Wear It Pink Day at the nursery. Throughout the week, we will be collecting donations to support this important charity and the people and families affected by breast cancer.

We invite the children to wear pink to nursery throughout the week, especially on Friday 23rd October, to show their support.

Every donation, no matter how small, can help make a difference

Happy Halloween – Monday 26th- Friday 30th October

Get ready for a spooktacular week at Early Years Day Nursery Uxbridge!

From Monday 26th to Friday 30th October, the nursery will be filled with Halloween-themed fun, from creative crafts and stories to exciting games and sensory activities. The children are welcome to dress up in their favourite Halloween or fancy-dress outfits throughout the week and join in with all the fun.

As always, thank you for your continued support.
