

T.E.A.C.H 2025 Newsletter

October Edition

Dr. Davy unites with students against bullying, proudly wearing yellow to show their support for kindness, respect, and a bully-free community.

Standing strong for domestic violence awareness, T.E.A.C.H students wear purple to honor survivors and promote hope and healing.

Superintendent Dr. White visits T.E.A.C.H and gets the chance to talk with student government, alongside Dr. Davy

T.E.A.C.H students show out for pink out day to support breast cancer awareness during a special visit from Senator Roxanne Persaud.

Mr. Ahmed and Ms. Madubuko are repping T.E.A.C.H at the Brooklyn North High School fair at George Westinghouse.

Plaid day spirit shines bright! T.E.A.C.H students show off their school pride with bold and colorful plaid outfits.

Cozy vibes only at T.E.A.C.H. Students celebrate Pajama Day in comfort and style, bringing warmth and fun to the school halls.

Students at T.E.A.C.H worked hard, learned a lot, and got to celebrate even harder. It's party time!

Scary good times at T.E.A.C.H! Students celebrate Halloween with creative costumes, laughter, and community spirit.