

Fiction Responses

1. Which character do you like the most in your book? Why?
2. What do you predict will happen next in this story? What information in the text helped you make that prediction?
3. What is the main problem of the story? If you know, how was the problem solved?
4. Would you like to be a character in this story? Why or why not?
5. How do you feel about this story? Would you recommend it to someone else? Why or why not?
6. Summarize what you read today. What were the most important events? Did you learn anything new about the characters?
7. Is what you read believable? Why or why not?
8. Pretend you are interviewing the main character of the story. What two questions would you ask them?
9. If you could trade places with one of the characters who would it be? Why?
10. Is there anything you would change about this story? What would it be? Why would you change it?

Non Fiction Responses

1. What is the selection you read mainly about?
2. What did you learn while reading?
3. Why did the author probably write this selection? How do you know?
4. What was the main idea of what you read? What were the supporting details that told you more about the main idea?
5. How and where could you find out more information about the topic read about today?
6. What else would you like to know about the topic you read about?
7. Were there any text features that helped you better understand your reading? What were they and how did they help you?
8. What did you find interesting as you were reading today?
9. What do you remember most about what you read?
10. Did you find an interesting word while you were reading? What was it? Use a dictionary to find out its meaning and write a sentence of your own using the interesting word that you found.

Reading Response Questions

Directions: Read a book, then answer the question assigned in your homework notebook using text based information. Make sure to write the title of the book in capital letters and include the author's name. Please write the number of the question and then answer in complete sentences.

Question:

- ① Do you think this is a good story or book? Why or why not?
2. What is the main idea of the story?
3. Read half of the story. Stop...and write your prediction about what will happen next. Finish reading the story to see if your prediction was correct.
- ④ Write about an important event that happened in the story. Make a connection to an event that happened in another story you read.
5. Write about an important event that happened in the story. Make a connection to an event that happened to you.
6. Who was the main character in the story? Describe how the character looks.
- ⑦ Describe what the main character does and say in your own words.
8. Write about your favorite character in the story.
9. Retell the story in the correct sequence. (first, next, then, last)
10. What was the most important part of the story and why?
- ⑪ Was the book fiction or non-fiction and how do you know?
12. Tell 3 important facts from the story.
13. What was the setting of the story? Describe it
14. What was the problem in the story? How was the problem solved?
15. Write about the problem in the story and create a new solution.
16. Compare 2 characters from the story. How are they the same and how are they different?
17. Would you read another book by this author? Why or why not?
18. How do you feel about the ending of the story? Why?
19. If you could change the ending of the story, what would it be?

P.S.78

Jane Doe

Reading Response

I read a book titled Chester's Way by Kevin Henkes.

1. I think that Chester's Way is a good book because it taught me a lesson. I learned that you can't always get your way. You need to compromise with your friends.

7. The main character in the story is Chester. Chester is a little boy mouse who plays all the time with his best friend Wilson. He always says "Howdy" when he meets someone for the first time.

11. The book Chester's Way is a fiction story. I know because the characters are mice and I know that talking mice are not real.

Example of Reading Response H.W if # 1, 7, and 11 were assigned.