

A COLLECTION typical of the many categories in this year's art show is displayed by Bill Booth, right, president of the Delta Art Association which sponsors the show, and Mrs. Ed (Joyce) Jones. In the nine years since its beginning, the art show has grown so that works by artists throughout the state are now included. This year, there were 861 entries by 341 artists.