

Welcoming Robin Q. Frost, Esq. to Byrne Canaan Law

PARTNER ATTORNEY · HEALTH CARE & BUSINESS COUNSEL · EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2026

Robin Frost joined Byrne Canaan Law's team of experienced health law attorneys effective October 1, 2026. Robin founded Red Quill Law in 2019 after serving as in-house counsel to a medical software company. Since then, she has advised healthcare professionals, behavioral-health and group practices, and health-technology companies on business structure, regulatory compliance, risk, and day-to-day operations. She helps clients develop licensure-appropriate ownership structures; negotiate employment, contractor, vendor, payer, and technology agreements; and build practical compliance systems, including HIPAA and privacy policies, Good Faith Estimates, informed-consent documents, telehealth disclosures, and other client-facing materials. She also serves as ongoing outside general counsel through periods of growth, transition, and succession.

ROBIN Q. FROST, ESQ.

Partner Attorney

Licensed in Virginia | (804) 806-4807 | rfrost@byrnecanaanlaw.com
Formerly in-house counsel to a medical software company | M.S. Physics

PRACTICE FOCUS

- Health care business formation and licensure-sensitive ownership structures
- HIPAA, privacy, Good Faith Estimates, informed consent, telehealth, and client-facing compliance documents
- Fee-splitting, referral, management, and space-sharing arrangements
- Employment and contractor arrangements, compensation, classification, and clinician transitions
- Vendor, payer, software, SaaS, and business associate agreements
- Ongoing general counsel, practice transactions, ownership transitions, and succession

A FULL-SERVICE HEALTH CARE PRACTICE

Byrne Canaan Law defends health care professionals and facilities across Virginia. We try cases, respond to licensing board complaints, and handle audits and government investigations. Robin expands the Firm's comprehensive health care services with her experience in business structuring, compliance, privacy, contracting, workforce issues, and day-to-day operational counseling.

ADVISE & STRUCTURE

Formation, ownership, compliance, privacy, workforce, contracts, transactions, and ongoing general counsel.

LICENSING & REGULATORY

Board defense, audits, government investigations, administrative hearings, credentialing, and reporting obligations.

LITIGATION & TRIAL

Malpractice defense, appeals, and high-stakes civil litigation in courts throughout the Commonwealth.

To discuss practice structure, compliance, contracts, or ongoing general counsel, call 804.806.4807 or email rfrost@byrnecanaanlaw.com.