

EVAN LEYBOURN

CHIEF PRODUCT OFFICER

SPEAKING TOPICS

Strategic Agility

Human-Centered AI

Certain Uncertainty

CLARITY IN COMPLEXITY

Grounded in research and real-world leadership, Evan's talks help audiences rethink strategy, challenge outdated structures, and see why better outcomes depend as much on people and systems as they do on process or tools.

ABOUT ME

Evan Leybourn helps leaders make sense of uncertainty and build organizations that can adapt with intention.

As Chief Product Officer at X2A, cofounder of the Business Agility Institute, and author of Directing the Agile Organisation and #noprojects, he brings a research-backed, practical perspective to strategy, AI, organizational design, and continuous value creation

Anyone who is even vaguely adjacent to the business agility space has probably come across the incredible, the exceptional, Evan Leybourn before.
