+ № 01 · Rentista Visa

Argentina

One of the shortest naturalisation timelines in the world: two years.

The Rentista Visa is built for passive income earners. After two continuous years of legal residence you can apply for Argentine citizenship and passport, among the fastest routes available anywhere. Qualify with approximately $3,500 USD per month in passive income.

The Argentine passport ranks fifteenth globally, with visa-free access to around 170 countries including the Schengen Area, the UK, Japan and China. As a resident you also gain Mercosur rights to live and work in Brazil, Paraguay, Uruguay and Bolivia.

KEY FEATURES

+ Citizenship in two years
  Two continuous years of legal residence is the whole requirement.
+ Strong passport
  Roughly 170 visa-free destinations; ranked fifteenth globally.
+ Mercosur mobility
  Live and work in Brazil, Paraguay, Uruguay and Bolivia.
+ Low threshold
  About $3,500 per month in passive income; no investment required.
+ Business friendly
  Self-employment and business ownership are both permitted.
+ Concierge interview support
  Legal representation and translation at your immigration interview.

CONTINUITY & INCOME RULES

Under Decree 366/2025 you must remain in Argentina continuously for two years to qualify for citizenship; any departure can reset the clock. Private health insurance is now mandatory for temporary residents. Only passive income qualifies; if you do not have it, we can help create it through our Passive Income Certification.

+ № 02 · Basic Residency Package

Paraguay

The lowest-cost route into a territorial tax jurisdiction.

Paraguay is the most affordable way to establish legal tax residency in a territorial tax jurisdiction. Three short trips spread over several months complete the whole process: application, cédula collection, then RUC tax registration.

Income earned outside Paraguay is not taxed. Temporary residency runs for two years, followed by permanent residency, with citizenship eligibility at year three. After setup you return once per year while temporary, or once every three years once permanent.

KEY FEATURES

+ Lowest cost residency
  The most affordable territorial-tax route available.
+ Zero tax on foreign income
  Only Paraguayan-source income is taxed at all.
+ Flexible timeline
  Three short trips spread over several months, on your schedule.
+ Citizenship at year three
  One of the shortest schedules in the region.
+ Minimal presence
  Once a year while temporary, once every three years once permanent.
+ Light requirements
  Passport, apostilled birth certificate and background check.

TRIPS & FILING

This package requires three separate visits to Paraguay, and the cédula must be collected in person. Monthly tax filing is required once your RUC is active. For clients who would rather complete everything in a single visit, we also offer the Paraguay Tax Free Residency package.

+ № 03 · Non-Lucrative Visa

Spain

Live in Spain on passive income, with citizenship for LatAm nationals in two years.

The Non-Lucrative Visa is for those who want to live in Spain without working (retirees, passive income earners, and those with sufficient savings). We handle the entire application and every renewal: you provide the documents, we do the rest.

Citizens of Latin American countries become eligible for Spanish citizenship after just two years of legal residence. Other nationals can apply for permanent residency after five years and citizenship after ten, with visa-free travel throughout the Schengen Area from day one.

KEY FEATURES

+ Fast-track citizenship
  LatAm nationals are eligible after two years of legal residence.
+ Access to Europe
  Visa-free travel throughout the Schengen Area as a Spanish resident.
+ Financial threshold
  €28,800 per year (400% of IPREM), plus €7,200 per dependent.
+ Path to EU residency
  Permanent residency at five years, citizenship at ten for other nationals.
+ Quality of life
  World-class healthcare and a lower cost of living than much of Western Europe.
+ Renewals handled
  A one-year initial permit, then two-year renewals; we manage each one.

REQUIREMENTS & COMPLIANCE

Enter Spain within 90 days of approval and apply for your NIE within 30 days of arrival. At least 183 days per year in Spain is required for renewal and for citizenship. No work is permitted on this visa, including remote work for foreign employers.

+ № 04 · Friendly Nations Visa

Panama

Residency through company formation, with zero tax on foreign income.

The Friendly Nations Visa grants residency through the formation of a Panamanian company, which then becomes your operational base for international business. There is no minimum stay: you maintain your status with one or two short trips per year.

Panama operates a territorial tax system: income earned outside Panama is not taxed. Temporary residency runs for two years, followed by permanent residency, with citizenship eligibility at year seven. Citizens of more than fifty qualifying nations are eligible.

KEY FEATURES

+ No minimum stay
  Maintain your status with one or two short trips per year.
+ Zero tax on foreign income
  A territorial system: non-Panama earnings are not taxed.
+ Company equals residency
  S.A. formation is included, and becomes your operating base.
+ 50+ qualifying nationalities
  The US, UK, Canada, Australia and most of Europe qualify.
+ Clear path forward
  Permanent residency at year two, citizenship eligible at year seven.
+ Two short trips
  Five to seven days to open, one to two days to collect your card.

COMPLIANCE & TAX NOTES

Your Panamanian company must remain active and file annual tax reports; we provide compliance support. US citizens are taxed on worldwide income regardless of residence, so the territorial benefit accrues to non-US persons. Residency, banking and company advantages apply to all. After permanent residence, visit at least once every three years.

+ № 05 · Temporary Residency

Mexico

One year, then three more: permanent residency at four, citizenship at five.

Mexican residency begins with a one-year temporary permit, renewable for three additional years, after which it converts to permanent residency. Citizenship is available after five years. Modern infrastructure, excellent private healthcare and easy access to the United States.

Residents receive a CURP, Mexico's equivalent of a social security number, which allows you to open bank accounts, sign leases, buy vehicles and access public healthcare. There is no strict minimum stay to maintain temporary residency.

KEY FEATURES

+ Straightforward path
  One year, then a three-year renewal, then permanent residency.
+ No relocation requirement
  Enter and exit freely; no strict minimum stay applies.
+ Work flexibility
  Remote work for foreign clients and foreign-source income permitted.
+ Banking and services
  A CURP unlocks accounts, leases, vehicles and healthcare.
+ Accessible thresholds
  About $4,300–4,500 per month, or roughly $73,000 in savings.
+ Citizenship at five years
  Subject to eighteen of the twenty-four months prior in country.

DEADLINES & DISCRETION

You must begin the INM canje process within 30 days of entering Mexico; missing this deadline can void your visa. Consulates interpret the financial requirements differently (some use net income, others gross), and we confirm your specific consulate's rules before filing. Dependents add roughly $1,500 per month to the threshold.

+ № 06 · Digital Nomad Visa

Colombia

Two years of legal residency for remote workers, at the lowest bar in the region.

The Digital Nomad Visa grants up to two years of legal residency to remote workers earning foreign income: approximately $1,400 USD per month, one of the most accessible thresholds available anywhere. We handle the full application and every appointment.

Unlike a tourist visa it gives you legal status to live and work remotely from Colombia with no border runs and no extensions, and no minimum stay. Medellín, Bogotá and Cartagena offer excellent co-working, fast internet and established expatriate communities.

KEY FEATURES

+ Up to two years
  Renewable as long as you continue to meet the requirements.
+ Legal remote work
  No border runs, no visa extensions, no grey areas.
+ Affordable base
  Low cost of living alongside modern infrastructure.
+ Low income threshold
  About $1,400 per month, three times the Colombian minimum wage.
+ Travel flexibility
  Enter and exit Colombia freely; no minimum stay.
+ Dependents included
  Spouses and children can apply once your visa is approved.

SCOPE & LIMITATIONS

This visa permits work for foreign employers and clients only, not for Colombian companies or local clients. You must apply for your Cédula de Extranjería within 30 days of entering Colombia, and time held on this visa does not count toward permanent residency or the R Resident Visa.

+ № 07 · Independent Means Visa

Uruguay

Permanent residency from day one, and dual citizenship in three to five years.

Uruguay grants permanent residency directly, with no years of temporary status and no renewals. Qualify with approximately $2,000 USD per month in passive income for a single applicant, or $3,000 for a couple.

Citizenship is available after three years with family in Uruguay, or five years single, and dual citizenship is permitted with no renunciation. Under Tax Holiday 2.0, effective January 2026, new tax residents can claim up to ten years of exemption on foreign capital income.

KEY FEATURES

+ Permanent from day one
  No temporary status, no renewal cycle to maintain.
+ Fast citizenship
  Three years with family, five years single; dual citizenship allowed.
+ Easy to maintain
  Residency holds unless you are absent three consecutive years.
+ Low threshold
  About $2,000 per month single, or $3,000 for a couple.
+ Tax holiday
  Up to ten years exempt on foreign capital income from 2026.
+ Strong passport
  Visa-free access to more than 150 destinations.

PROCESSING & WORK RIGHTS

Applications take six to twelve months. You receive a temporary cédula and live legally in Uruguay throughout, and you may travel while it processes. Only passive income qualifies. You cannot be employed by a Uruguayan company, but self-employment and business ownership are permitted.

+ № 08 · Rentista / Pensionado

Ecuador

Permanent residency after twenty-one months, with every threshold fixed in dollars.

Ecuador uses the US dollar, so every income requirement, fee and investment threshold is denominated in dollars. Qualify with $1,446 USD per month in passive or pension income, one of the most accessible bars in the region.

Permanent residency is available after just twenty-one months of temporary residency, and citizenship after three years of permanent residency. Only Argentina and Peru, at two years, are faster anywhere in the region.

KEY FEATURES

+ Residency after 21 months
  Then citizenship after three years of permanent residency.
+ Low threshold
  $1,446 per month, plus only $250 per month per dependent.
+ Flexible while temporary
  Enter and exit freely, within the absence limit.
+ Fixed in US dollars
  No currency or exchange-rate risk on any threshold.
+ Dollarised healthcare
  Enrolment in the IESS system gives residents low-cost public cover.
+ Two routes
  Rentista for passive income, Pensionado for pension income.

ABSENCE & REGISTRATION

You must not be absent from Ecuador for more than ninety days during the initial twenty-one-month period if you intend to pursue permanent residency. Your visa must be registered and your cédula applied for within fifteen days of approval. Enrolment in the IESS health system is generally required.
