

NOTICE – JUNE 2026: The NZTA webinars are currently down on their website. This is being reviewed and hopefully the recordings will be available soon.

TTM webinars

Webinars are one way to keep informed of the changes to TTM and hear from people across the sector.

Upcoming webinars

“How to do NZGTTM” education webinar series

Designed to help respond to requests for training and other common questions that we fielded last year, each webinar will have a specific focus and you’ll be provided with links to helpful resources so you can continue to learn and build your own knowledge of risk-based TTM.

1. Introduction to the NZGTTM: 2.30pm Tues 25 March 2025

For anyone who isn’t familiar with the NZGTTM, wants a refresher, or is still unsure about where to start.

We look at how you can plan the shift to a risk-based approach to TTM and why there is the need for the transition – safety and PCBU responsibilities under the Health & Safety at Work Act 2015.

2. TTM Credentials Framework - overview: 2.30pm Tues 8 April 2025

For anyone who wants to learn about the TTM Credentials Framework, where it is at with its development and what you can expect to come in 2025.

Recording of webinar and presentation slides available here.

3. TTM Competency - what you need to know now: 2.30pm Wed 30 April 2025

From a practical perspective, we’ll discuss what people need to do right now to show competency.
