

PLEDGE

I'm committing to Keep the Promise made to Australians with disability and their families for the National Disability Insurance Scheme to be a world class system of disability support.

I will work to make sure nobody is left behind and that there is no disadvantage for anyone who relies on disability care and support

I will support real choice and control for every person with a disability and protect disability work to keep our essential workforce strong.
