

Stop managing complaints. Start dismantling campaigns.

Turn every fraud report into structured intelligence, and every takedown into compounding platform knowledge.

Organizations receive thousands of fraud complaints from both employees and customers. Each represents a real victim, a real loss, and a piece of threat infrastructure still running. Most organizations triage manually, pivoting across tools, going back and forth with victims, submitting takedowns one by one. The intelligence inside every complaint goes unused. Outtake Intake changes that.

USE CASES

 Investment and long-con fraud Victims report scams using your brand. The campaign traced across LinkedIn, WhatsApp, and crypto wallets. The operator mapped before the transfer goes out.	 Recruiting and vendor scams Fake recruiters, counterfeit offer letters, impersonated suppliers.
