A frog walks into a bank and approaches the teller, whose name plate says Patricia Whack.

"Miss Whack, I'd like to get a $50,000 loan to take a vacation."

Patty looks at the frog in disbelief and asks his name.

"Kermit Jagger. My father is Mick Jagger. It will be fine to authorize the loan, I know your manager."

Patty explains that he will need to secure the loan with some collateral.

"Sure, how about this," said Kermit as he produces a tiny porcelain elephant, about an inch tall, bright pink and perfectly formed. Very confused, Patty explains that she'll have to consult with the bank manager and disappears into a back office.

Patty walks into the manager's office and proceeds to tell her, "There's a frog called Kermit Jagger out there who claims to know you and wants to borrow $50,000, and he wants to use this as collateral." Patty holds up the tiny pink elephant. "I mean, what in the world is this?"

The bank manager looks back at her and says..."It's a knick-knack, Patty Whack. Give the frog a loan. His old man's a Rolling Stone."

Corn Moon

Traditionally, we call the September Moon the "Corn Moon." Corn was ready to harvest at this time. In the 1760s, Captain Jonathan Carver came across this Native American term during his travels. Similarly, the Western Abenaki called this the Corn Maker Moon, and the Dakota, the Corn Harvest Moon.

However, you'll also see that there's a special astronomical name for this Moon: the "Harvest Moon."

WHEELCHAIRS & SHOPPING CARTS

Wheelchairs and shopping carts in the coffee room are for the public and residents to use anytime.

Wheelchairs and walkers that are left in the T.V. room are private and should not be moved away by anyone.

Please do not move out any mobility items from the T.V. room. They are privately owned and usually there just temporarily.

This procedure has been in effect for many years.

Thanks—Adrien

September Birthdays:

7th Esther Adams

20th DeAnne Dengler

An Englishman, an Irishman, and a Scotsman were standing looking at a prize cow in a field. '

The Englishman says, 'Look at that English cow, she's a winner alright.'

The Irishman disagreed. 'Hang on, that's an Irish cow.'

The Scot thought for a moment and settled the argument. "No way, it's a Scottish cow - you can tell from the bagpipes underneath.'

I dream of a better world where chickens can cross the road without their motives questioned.

MESSAGE FROM ADRIEN

1. Fall is in the air (Sept. 21st) and the garden has produced abundantly again this year.
2. Garbage is always an issue, I have many times asked folks to bag and double bag, if necessary, their garbage. Please make this happen in a good way. Summer is here and the garbage smells even more because of the heat.
3. SMOKING HAS BECOME AN ISSUE HERE AT COLUMBIAN PLACE. THIS IS A NO SMOKING BUILDING, THEREFORE, THAT MEANS YOU CANNOT EVEN SMOKE ON THE BALCONY. IF THAT IS YOU, PLEASE STOP. WE HAVE DESIGNATED SMOKING BY THE LOADING ZONE AND ONLY THERE CAN YOU SMOKE. THANKS FOR YOUR CO-OPERATION IN THIS MATTER.
4. CWL will be having their meetings here because of the warmup shelter at St. Mary's Church. In September, the ladies will meet in the craft room downstairs.
5. On Sunday, September 6, 2026, we are having a football Labor Day Classic evening in the TV room. Around 4:00 p.m., bring your favorite snack and your drink and come and watch the game.
6. Thursday, September 17th, 2026, a potluck dinner has been scheduled. Bring your favorite dish to be shared with others and come to socialize with the other tenants. A 50/50 draw will also be available for your enjoyment.
7. We want to bid farewell to a long-time residents of our facility, Mr. Doug Einsiedler. Doug is moving to Columbian Manor assisted living in September. Thank you for being such a great tenant and a friend.
8. We all know that Paulette DeGagne is very sick and will not be returning to Columbian Place. May God have mercy on her and we thank her for being an important part of the family here and we will miss her a lot.
9. We want to welcome Julia Nelson who has moved to Columbian Place. Thank you for joining our family here and please welcome her with open arms.
10. Thanks to everyone for all their help and patience in making our place a wonderful place to live and celebrate life.

God Bless You All

Adrien

The History of National Grandparents Day

Marian McQuade hoped to establish a national day that would honor grandparents, and in 1970, she began a campaign to do so. McQuade raised awareness about senior citizens throughout the 1970s. In 1978, President Jimmy Carter declared the first Sunday after Labor Day to be National Grandparents Day. Each year, the president makes a proclamation to keep the tradition going.

Grandparents Day has both an official flower and a song. The National Grandparents Day Council chose both.

The official flower is the forget-me-not.

The official song is Johnny Prill's "A Song for Grandma and Grandpa."

The local news station was interviewing an 80-year-old lady because she had just gotten married for the fourth time.

The interviewer asked her questions about her life, about what it felt like to be marrying again at 80, and then about her new husband's occupation. "He's a funeral director," she answered. "Interesting," the newsman thought. He then asked her if she wouldn't mind telling him a little about her first three husbands and what they did for a living.

She paused for a few moments, needing time to reflect on all those years.

After a short time, a smile came to her face and she answered proudly, explaining that she had first married a banker when she was in her 20's, then a circus ringmaster when in her 40's, and a preacher when in her 60's, and now – in her 80's – a funeral director. The interviewer looked at her, quite astonished, and asked why she had married four men with such diverse careers.

She smiled and explained: "I married:

One for the money,

Two for the show,

Three to get ready,

And four to go!"

Labor Day in Canada

Labour Day, the first Monday in September, has been a statutory holiday in Canada since 1894. It originated in the first workers' rallies of the Victorian era. Historically, workers marked the day with various activities. These included parades, speeches, games, amateur competitions and picnics. The holiday promoted working-class solidarity and belonging during a time of rapid industrialization. Since the Second World War, fewer and fewer people have participated in Labour Day activities. Nevertheless, it remains a statutory holiday. Many Canadians now devote the Labour Day holiday to leisure activity and family time.

If you get a group of 23 people together, there's a 50% chance two people will have the same birthday. In a room of 75, there's a 99.9% chance at least two people will have the same birthday.
