

Mrs. Pauline J. C.

Associate Professor

Mrs. Pauline J.C. is an Associate Professor at the College of Nursing, Sri Ramakrishna Institute of Paramedical Sciences. She completed her M.Sc. in Medical-Surgical Nursing from the College of Nursing, Sri Ramakrishna Institute of Paramedical Sciences, and her M.Sc. in Psychology from Bharathiar University, Coimbatore.

With over 12 years of combined clinical, academic, and international nursing experience, she began her professional career in the Super Specialty Intensive Care Unit (ICU) at Sri Ramakrishna Hospital, where she gained extensive clinical expertise. She later served for four years as a Senior Nurse Specialist and Clinical Instructor at the Ministry of Defence Hospital, Saudi Arabia, further strengthening her expertise in advanced nursing practice and clinical education.

Mrs. Pauline is actively involved in teaching, clinical supervision, student mentorship, and research guidance for undergraduate and postgraduate nursing students. She has published numerous scientific papers and presented several scientific posters at national conferences. In recognition of her research contributions, she received the Best Poster Award at the National Conference organized by PPG College of Nursing in 2026.

She is a Life Member of the Trained Nurses' Association of India (TNAI) and serves as the Secretary of the Alumni Association of the College of Nursing, Sri Ramakrishna Institute of Paramedical Sciences. She remains committed to promoting academic excellence, evidence-based nursing practice, and the holistic professional development of future nursing leaders.