

Who we are

Coastal 500 is a global network of mayors and local government leaders driving action on coastal fisheries for thriving oceans and prosperous coastal communities.

What we do

We provide a platform for coastal mayors and other local government leaders around the world to collaborate, learn from, and inspire each other to drive action and amplify the voices of their communities in national and international settings.

How you can support

Coastal 500 is expanding its membership and seeks technical, networking, and funding partners who share our vision.

In 2023, Coastal 500 was named a finalist for the prestigious Earthshot Prize, started by Prince William.
