Your space to grow

Cotters Lane is a landmark commercial building that celebrates Christchurch's resilience, thoughtfully combining a restored heritage façade with contemporary design. Home to boutique office suites across three levels, the building also features a vibrant mix of businesses at street level. Modern amenities create a professional, connected workplace in the heart of the SALT District. Purpose-built for today's businesses while honouring the site's remarkable history, Cotters Lane offers a truly distinctive place to work.
