

HER PRESS FOR THE FUTURE

»» IN NEED OF: ««

- SOCIAL MEDIA AND PROMOTION VOLUNTEER: 30 minutes to 1-hour a week, consistently
- GRANT RESEARCH VOLUNTEER: research 1 hour a week for grants applicable to Staging Her for 8 weeks total, combine findings in sheets or word doc.
- DONORS AND CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP PARTNERS: We still need help with funding this project.

ANNOUNCEMENT:

Visas have been applied for, but due to unforeseen delays with USCIS the board has decided to reschedule the program dates to allow for visa processing.

New proposed dates:
Spring 2027

THANK YOU TO ALL OF OUR DONORS!

JOSEPH

Your generosity toward this project is the reason we are able to provide a life changing opportunity to a group of hardworking women artists!

venmo

Donate TODAY through Venmo!

GRANTS RECIEVED IN 2025

- Tiemens Foundation Grant
- Joseph Henry Edmondson Foundation Grant
- William Stanley Foundation Grant
- WOLFF Grant
- Aweida Foundation Grant

ACHIEVEMENTS OF 2025

Course certifications for Tala, Asil, and Angel through Shine Fitness Studio

1st place in respective divisions for Marietou (hoop) and Tracy (silks) at Aerialympics Nationals (virtual)

GET YOUR OWN CUSTOM TEE!!

Support your favorite candidate by buying a custom T-shirt! All profits go toward the project.

Go to stagingher.org under "Global Threads" Tab

»» Our Mission ««

Staging Her is a 501c3 nonprofit organization (EIN: 99-0784240) dedicated to empowering young women from developing countries through the transformative art of circus performance. Our mission is to provide these women with opportunities to showcase their talents in the United States, fostering personal growth, cultural exchange, and professional development.