

Empower your Emergent Bilingual students to thrive with Lexia® English

As the number of Emergent Bilingual students, or English language learners, continues to increase in your classroom each year, you need new and better ways to ensure academic success for every learner. This means ensuring not only language proficiency but also academic achievement.

Lexia® English Language Development™ can help. An adaptive blended learning program for grades K–6, it supports students' English language development through academic conversations.

- Integrates three key areas: speaking, listening, and grammar
- Provides personalized speaking instruction, practice, and feedback
- Promotes academic conversations in subjects such as math, science, social studies, general knowledge, and biographies
- Offers continuous progress monitoring to track student success and personalized instruction needs
- Incorporates cultural responsiveness to honor learners' diversity

Lexia English can help you ensure educational opportunity and equity for all students in your classroom. Learn more at lexialearning.com/lexia-english.

The program can help you:

- Motivate and engage your Emergent Bilingual students
- Build students' confidence and language production
- Target and personalize instruction
- Improve performance on state assessments and demonstrate success
- Make data-informed instructional decisions
- Better engage Emergent Bilingual students' families
- Cultivate learners' skills to succeed in school and beyond
- Incorporate Culturally Responsive Pedagogies
