In 2013 CCA continued to focus it's programs and services toward empowering and giving hope to individuals and families affected by facial differences.

For families dealing with facial differences, many areas of their lives are affected; financial, emotional and psychological. CCA focuses on empowering and giving hope to these families by addressing each of these areas and each member of the family. We do that by holding an annual family retreat, publishing newsletters and educational booklets, providing financial assistance, offering a list of qualified craniofacial surgeons connecting families with like experiences and several awareness and acceptance efforts.

For children with a craniofacial condition, the rejection, teasing and bullying is far more hurtful than the 25 to 40 surgeries (on average) they will endure before they reach adulthood. When R.J. Palacio was writing the book Wonder, her first novel about Auggie, a 5th Grader who has a facial difference, she couldn't possibly have realized what a dramatic impact this book would have on thousands of school-age kids across the country and even the world. Nor could she have known this book would be a tool that would become a part of the curriculum in hundreds of schools. In 2013 CCA leveraged this powerful message teaching thousands of youngsters not to judge someone by the way they look but to get to know the real person and to choose to be kind and to stand up to bullying.

We will continue with our work to empower and give hope until our vision of a world where all people are accepted for who they are, not how they look, is achieved.

Financial Assistance

Almost a year ago, I gave birth to a beautiful little girl name Lola, who has Apert syndrome. As a single mom, this journey can get tough. I would like to thank God for the wonderful team at CCA for helping us. CCA is one of the best organizations around. And for that, Lola and I would love to thank y'all for everything! LaTonya Williams

CCANetwork Newsletter

I wanted to thank you for the newsletter, It was so inspiring and I have made everyone I know read it. ~ Sherry

I've just finished reading your newsletter from front to back, thoroughly enjoying my connection with you all again. I just couldn't let another month go by without thanking you. You've helped me become a better, more supportive mother. It's nice to know we're not alone! ~ Thora

23rd Annual Cher's Family Retreat and Craniofacial symposium

The retreat has changed our lives for forever! ~ Mary

I have been involved with CCA since I was three. My family and I have been to every retreat except one. CCA has been an important influence in my life. I grew up knowing there were kids like me. I've made many lifelong friends, and every year I make a couple more. I've also met the most amazing kids on the retreats. They are also why I want to be a nurse. CCA has helped me greatly growing up. I know that without them, I would not be the person I am today. ~ Amanda

Syndrome Booklets One Page Papers and CCAKids.org

Right after my daughter was born, I was lost and trying to learn as much as I possibly could about her syndrome. The syndrome booklet on Apert syndrome on the CCA website was so much more informative than the scary print out I received at the hospital. I also went to the FAQ section and noticed people had asked the same questions I needed answers to. It was such a relief to know I wasn't alone. ~ Lisa

Isn't it Wonderful

take cca's choosekind challenge!

1. Read it, Book

Write up the chosen book to present your class to using all the words and creating a story about the book.

2. Take it, Pledge

Write your pledge of 100 words or less.

Write your pledge to the school, the district, and the community.

3. Support it, Game

Write a game plan for the school, the district, and the community.

Write a game plan for the school, the district, and the community.

School-age kids across the nation are learning to “Choose Kind” and stand up against bullying because of a book about a 5th grade boy who has a craniofacial condition. In 2013 CCA continued to promote the teaching of Wonder in schools across the nation and beyond. We began a book donation program and continued to publish Wonder Educator Packets as a resource for school teachers. CCA “WonderKids” were connected via skype, email and letter writing with classrooms across the country. Several school groups have even held fundraisers to benefit CCA.

Public Awareness

Acceptance Month Picnics were held in 11 states

Lentil, the French Bulldog was born with a cleft mussel and palate and would not have lived if not for his tenacious, adoptive mom Lindsay Condefer who tube fed him until he was strong enough to have surgery to repair his palate allowing him to eat normally. Having experienced some of the trials and tribulations parents of kids with facial differences go through, and with Lentil's increasing on-line popularity, Lindsay saw an opportunity to spread awareness and acceptance for the hundreds of thousands of kids and adults who have craniofacial conditions. In 2013, Lindsay held Lentil Fest, an event to raise funds for CCA, and she and Lentil attended their first Cher's Family Retreat. Our CCA kids took an immediate liking to Lentil knowing he has endured surgeries just like them. That weekend, Lindsay and Lentil started a fundraising campaign through Lentil's facebook page followers (Team Lentil) and by the end of the campaign they raised $25,000 to send more families to the 2014 family retreat. Today Lentil's facebook page has nearly 150,000 followers and Lindsay and Lentil continue their quest to educate the public and raise awareness of facial differences.

Vision: A world where all people are accepted for who they are, not how they look.
