

DOXA DEO

OVERVIEW

Doxa Deo is a city-focused Christian church movement that seeks to see God's transforming presence impact cities around the world. The movement functions as one church expressed through multiple campuses and ministries, with a shared calling to equip individuals and communities to live out their faith in ways that bring faith, love and hope to society.

At the heart of Doxa Deo is the conviction that believers are called to be City Changers who know God, love people and impact their world. Through discipleship, community and mission, the
