

Eben Schutte
PARTNER

Eben Schutte is a Partner at CCI Professional - a consulting house that specialises in Industry 4 enabled human capital investment strategies. Eben is a highly experienced legal, business, and human resources professional with more than two decades of corporate and commercial experience across the insurance, security services and mining sectors. He is an admitted attorney and conveyancer with a strong reputation for legal rigor, compliance, commercial insight and disciplined execution.

Throughout his career, Eben has combined deep legal expertise with practical business leadership, particularly in contract law, labour relations, governance, risk management and operational compliance. His background in senior legal advisory roles and executive-level business management enables him to bridge the gap between legal theory and real-world commercial decision-making.

In addition to his corporate career, Eben brings over 25 years of entrepreneurial and sales experience through a successful dried fruit distribution business, giving him a grounded, results-driven understanding of cash flow, customer relationships and business sustainability.

PROFESSIONAL ACUMEN

- Eben Schutte brings a rare combination of legal precision, commercial insight and operational leadership. His career reflects a consistent ability to interpret complex legal and regulatory frameworks and translate them into practical, business-aligned solutions.
- He has extensive experience in assessing risk, structuring contracts and guiding management through high-stakes decisions involving compliance, labour relations, litigation and commercial exposure. His background across insurance, security services and mining environments has given him a deep appreciation for governance, safety, risk and operational discipline.
- Eben is particularly effective at navigating the intersection between people, policy and performance. His hands-on leadership in human resources, disciplinary processes and organisational compliance allows him to protect both the organisation and its employees while maintaining fairness, accountability and legal integrity.

- With a strong entrepreneurial mindset developed through more than two decades of running a dried fruit distribution business, Eben also understands the commercial realities of cash flow, customer relationships and sustainable profitability. This enables him to contribute not only as a legal and compliance professional, but as a commercially astute business partner to executive teams.

Key positions that Eben held during his working career:

- Business & Human Resources Manager — Tugela Mining & Minerals (Pty) Ltd
- National Legal Manager — G4S Cash Solutions (SA) (Pty) Ltd
- Senior Legal Adviser — Momentum Group Ltd
