ENCYCLICAL LETTER

MAGNIFICA HUMANITAS

OF HIS HOLINESS

POPE LEO XIV

ON SAFEGUARDING THE HUMAN PERSON

IN THE TIME OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

25 MAY 2026

Remaining human

15. In the recent Ordinary Jubilee Year of 2025, we walked as pilgrims of hope and were blessed with many graces. Strengthened by these gifts, we can move forward with confidence to face the arduous tasks and demanding challenges that lie ahead. In the era of artificial intelligence, when human dignity is threatened by new forms of dehumanization, ours is the pressing duty to remain profoundly human. We must lovingly safeguard the grandeur of humanity bestowed upon us and revealed in its fullness in Christ, the splendor of which no machine can ever replace. True progress always stems from a heart open to others, an intelligence willing to listen and a will that seeks what unites rather than what separates

16. I address this heartfelt appeal to all the Catholic faithful, to all Christians and to all men and women of goodwill. Let us not be afraid to get our hands dirty on the “construction site” of our time. Like Nehemiah, let us pray, plan wisely and work perseveringly, placing God at the forefront of our actions and the human person at the center of our choices. Thus, the “rejected stones” — the poor, the sick, the migrants and the least among us — will become the cornerstone, and a solid, welcoming common home will emerge on the earth, where love and faithfulness will finally meet, and righteousness and peace will embrace (cf. Ps 85:10). This is the blessing we implore from God; and the task that stands before us is that of being builders of communion, rather than architects of Babel. We are to be servants of the coming Kingdom, instead of lords of towers destined for ruin. With the heart of a shepherd and a father, I ask everyone to abandon the construction of yet another Tower of Babel and to join forces in building up the common good, so that humanity will never lose its beauty, and the world once again will come to recognize the human heart as the place where God desires to dwell.

Permanecer siendo humanos

15. En el reciente Jubileo ordinario del 2025, hemos caminado como peregrinos de la esperanza y hemos sido colmados de gracias. Fortalecidos por estos dones, podemos avanzar con ánimo confiado ante las arduas tareas y los exigentes desafíos que se perfilan en nuestro futuro. En la era de la inteligencia artificial, en la que la dignidad humana corre el riesgo de verse eclipsada por nuevas formas de deshumanización, tenemos el deber urgente de permanecer profundamente humanos, custodiando con amor esa magnífica humanidad que se nos ha dado y revelado en plenitud en Cristo, y que ninguna máquina podrá jamás sustituir en su esplendor. El verdadero progreso nace siempre de un corazón abierto al otro, de una inteligencia dispuesta a escuchar, de una voluntad que busca lo que une más que lo que separa.

16. A todos los fieles católicos, a todos los cristianos, a todos los hombres y mujeres de buena voluntad les dirijo un vehemente llamamiento: no temamos ensuciarnos las manos en la obra de nuestro tiempo. Como Nehemías, oremos, proyectemos con sabiduría, trabajemos con perseverancia, poniendo a Dios en el horizonte de nuestro actuar y al ser humano en el centro de nuestras decisiones. Entonces las piedras desechadas —los pobres, los enfermos, los migrantes, los pequeños— se convertirán en piedras angulares, y sobre la tierra surgirá un hogar común sólido y hospitalario, donde el amor y la verdad finalmente se encontrarán, y la justicia y la paz se besarán (cf. Sal 85,11). Esta es la bendición que imploramos a Dios y la tarea que tenemos por delante: ser constructores de comunión, no arquitectos de Babel; siervos del Reino que viene, no dueños de torres destinadas a derrumbarse. Y, con ánimo de pastor y de padre, pido a todos que detengan la construcción de la enésima Babel y que unan fuerzas para edificar en el bien, para que la humanidad nunca pierda su propia belleza y el mundo pueda reconocer una vez más, en el corazón del ser humano, el lugar donde Dios desea habitar.
