

Privacy Policy

This document provides a general legal framework for the GSP Engineering website and should be reviewed by a qualified legal professional before final publication.

Introduction

GSP Engineering Pty Ltd respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information we collect through our website, enquiries, project discussions and business operations.

Information We Collect

We may collect personal information including your name, company name, email address, phone number, project details, enquiry information and website usage data.

How We Use Information

Information collected may be used to respond to enquiries, provide quotations, manage projects, improve our services, communicate updates and comply with legal obligations.

Website Analytics

Our website may use analytics and tracking technologies including Google Analytics to understand website performance, visitor behaviour and engagement.

Disclosure of Information

We do not sell personal information. Information may be shared with trusted suppliers, subcontractors, consultants or service providers where necessary to deliver services or comply with legal obligations.

Data Security

We take reasonable steps to protect personal information from misuse, unauthorised access, disclosure or loss.

Access & Corrections

You may request access to or correction of your personal information by contacting us directly.

Third Party Links

Our website may contain links to external websites. GSP Engineering is not responsible for the privacy practices or content of third party websites.

Changes to this Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. Updated versions will be published on our website.
