

THE UNIVERSITY of
NEW ORLEANS

Academic Board

Charge:

The Academic Board has oversight over all faculty committees involving Academic Issues. This committee formulates and reviews policies, rules, and regulations governing the admission, readmission, academic standing, and dismissal of all students for academic deficiency. The committee examines policies and procedures for academic advisement, scheduling of classes, academic calendar and registration. Additionally, the committee creates and analyzes policies to be observed by the instructional faculty in conducting classes, seminars, examinations, students' research, and student evaluations including distance education. A representative from this Board shall serve on the Distance Education Council and two representatives shall serve on the General Education Council. The Chair of the Academic Board shall meet with the Executive Board regularly to update the Executive Board on the progress of existing charges and discuss any new charges. The Academic Board shall work with the appropriate entities in Academic Affairs to resolve these issues. The Academic Board is responsible for populating its committees with the assistance of each college's representative on the Executive Board, where appropriate.

Membership:

It shall consists of Senate members with at least one representative from each college selected by the Executive Board. When possible, Senators' interests will be taken in to account.
