

THE UNIVERSITY of
NEW ORLEANS

Student Publications Committee

Charge:

To assist in the efforts to help meet the university's communication needs and to provide maximum opportunity for educational journalistic experiences. The authority of the committee is derived from a delegation of responsibility by the Office of the President. The role of the committee is to assist the publications under its purview to conduct effectively their business and editorial operations and to enhance the educational experience of the publications' staffs. The committee has jurisdiction over all student publications that receive support from student funds, including in particular the Driftwood newspaper. The committee shall take under consideration all matters concerning student publications referred to it by administrators, faculty or students.

Membership:

Faculty members appointed by the President; one staff member appointed by the Staff Council; one member from the local professional journalism community; two student representatives, preferably one undergraduate and one graduate student, nominated by Student Government.